

Think of a Graph

Think about the following graph:

The side length of a square is graphed on the horizontal axis. The perimeter of the square is graphed on the vertical axis.

1. With your partner, sketch what you think the graph would look like.
2. You have two minutes to sketch something and hold it up for everyone to see.